Welcome

Widely recognised as an important cultural event, 2023's Simmer Down Festival is the perfect opportunity to link your company with the contemporary energy, legacy and heritage of Reggae through an established and well-respected, energetic, pioneering, safe, ethical and professionally run music event.

The festival celebrates important themes of peace, love, and unity in an ever more pressurised world.

As a truly multi-cultural event, each year the festival attracts artists of national and international note as well as providing a fantastic showcase for up and coming talent from across the UK.

It's run by Simmer Down Arts CIC, an Arts Council National Portfolio Organisation which has for over 12 years delivered an exciting year round arts and music programme crowned by the annual Simmer Down Festival.

Sponsoring Simmer Down 2023 is the perfect opportunity to align your business with what is one of the UK's most exciting and vibrant music scenes whilst reaching a culturally diverse audience of over 20,000 people from Birmingham, the Midlands and beyond.

Where else can you mix business outcomes, effective Corporate Social Responsibility and a fantastic party vibe?

Simmer Down Festival is a key event for the region's music and arts calendar. For Reggae fans it's nationally significant attracting visitors from across the UK and internationally. The festival has built a reputation for its carnival atmosphere and as a friendly, welcoming and fun day out for the whole family. 67% of those who visited in 2022 had attended Simmer Down before.

87% of those who attended the 2022 festival rated it as either good or excellent.

The festival's inter-cultural programme features internationally acclaimed artists alongside the very best in home grown talent. Headline artists are carefully selected for their international reputation and mass appeal to our diverse audiences; previous artists include Grammy nominees and winners including legends like Freddie McGregor, Maxi Priest, Steel Pulse, Inner Circle and Third World. This year the festival headliners and programme will be even bigger and better.

This year's festival takes place at Handsworth Park, Holly Road, Birmingham B20 2BY, on Sunday 16th July. The event will be ticketed, with tickets starting from £8.00 ensuring Simmer Down 2023 provides amazing value. 61% of those who attended in 2022 said that the tickets were either good or very good value for money and 63% said ticket prices were about right. The festival programme is delivered across three stages and consists of live music, dance and spoken word, plus educational workshops and participation activities.

In addition, there's a dedicated young people's programme in the Children's Meadow area alongside fun activities for all the family including; face painting, family rides, a community cricket match and a selection of incredible food stalls offering a range of treats from across the globe.

Annual Programme

Whilst the annual Simmer Down Festival is the crowning glory of our annual programme, we also run a comprehensive music and arts development programme each year. In 2022 this included the following exciting projects:

 SDF Launch Fiesta - an outdoor celebratory launch event at the Midlands Arts Centre featuring one of the pioneers of reggae music, the legendary Skatalites from Jamaica alongside local artists and musicians

 Young Gifted Brum – a partnership project with G.A.P. Entertainment engaging 120 young people in music and dance workshops culminating in live performances at the festival as part of B2022 Commonwealth Games Cultural Programme

 Birmingham Reggae Royalty Mural – a mural in Handsworth Park paying tribute to Birmingham based reggae artists that have contributed to the City's reputation as an epicentre of reggae music and an international city of culture

 Levelling Up Project - a 6-month professional development programme providing structured training and hands on experiential learning to an emergent Creative Produce as part of the Birmingham City Council Commissioning

Session A Run – a celebration of sound system culture featuring Wassifa Showcase and Luv Injection along with leading reggae artists at the Birmingham Smithfield Markets as part of the B2022 Lives Sites programme

The History of Reggae – a sold out stage show at the Rep theatre in Birmingham featuring an array of local reggae artists and musicians charting the evolution of reggae music, with musical director former Steel Pulse founder Basil Gabiddon and produced/directed by Alex Williams

Sponsorship Opportunities

Delivering great results from sponsoring us requires a close fit between the needs of a potential sponsor and Simmer Down.

- Who are your customers, are they from the Midlands or fans of Reggae music?
- Do you want to be associated with the energy, youthfulness, and fun of our carnival style event?

514216514416514416514416514416514416514416514416514416

- Does public opinion and word of mouth advertising help ur business grow?
- Would your brand benefit from exposure to thousands of people before, at and after the event?

If you can answer yes to one or more of the questions above, then sponsoring the Simmer Down Festival 2023 or Simmer Down Arts CIC will offer tangible benefits!
